

JAMESON FAMILY SCHOLARSHIP

Continuing HB144 Students

If you are an HB144 student attending the University of Utah and have completed, or will have completed after the Fall semester, 2015, at least one year of studies at the University of Utah, you are eligible to apply for the Jameson Family Scholarship, administered by Holy Cross Ministries. The Jameson Family Scholarship awards up to one two-semester scholarship valued at $7,000 and one one-semester scholarships valued at $3,500, which applies to the student's college tuition. Last year a total of three scholarships were awarded. The scholarships are only valid at the University of Utah. They will be paid out in two installments - one at the start of the Fall semester, 2016, and one at the start of the following semester. The scholarships are one-time and non-renewable.

WHO QUALIFIES?

To be eligible for the Jameson Family Scholarship an individual must have been accepted as an HB144 student by the University of Utah, have completed at least one year at the University of Utah, be a motivated student with a good academic record, have financial need, and be enrolled as full-time at the time the award is used. Preference will be given to Latino/a students. ALL students must be enrolled as full-time (12 credits or more) in order to access this award. Preference will also be given to (a) students who are majoring in the College of Social and Behavioral Science, (b) students who have been involved in leadership and/or community activities and have plans to use their education to serve that community, (c) students who have applied for Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA), and (d) students who graduated from Wayne County High School. These are preferences; however scholarship eligibility is not limited to these students alone and a broad spectrum of student characteristics is expected.
